

Finding Yourself

Written and Illustrated by Kannin Boulware

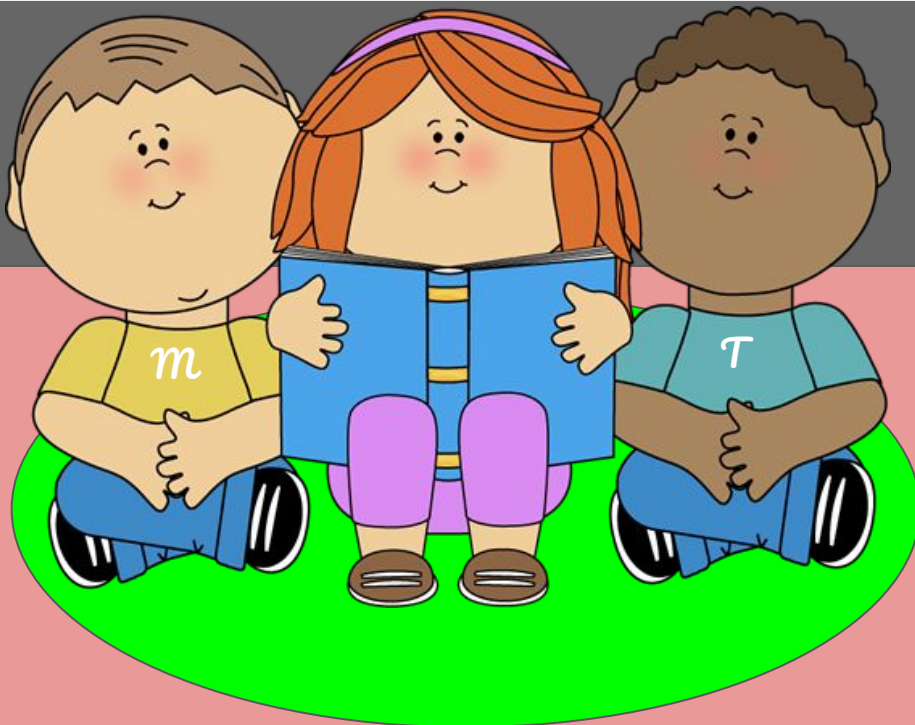

Hi my name is Sarah,
but my friends call
me Sookie. I love
reading
books.

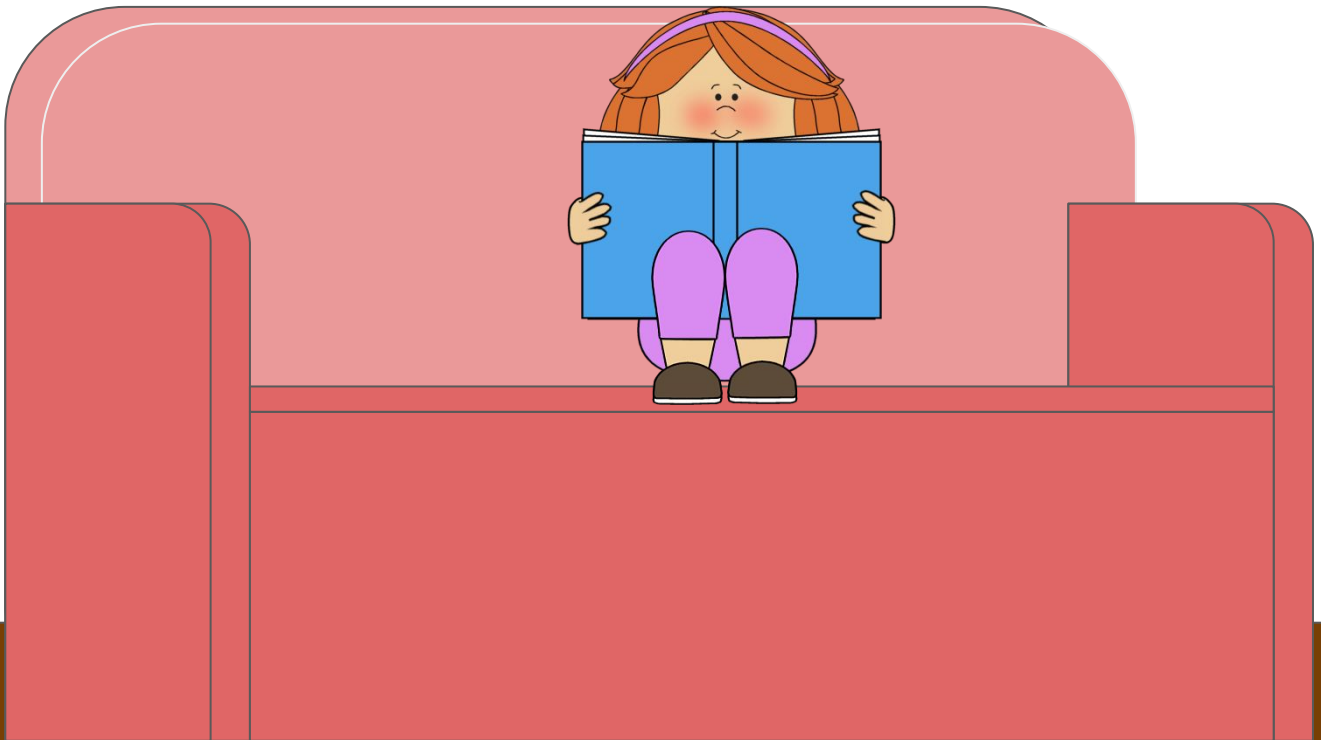

I have two friends in my class,
their names are Michelangelo
and Trey.

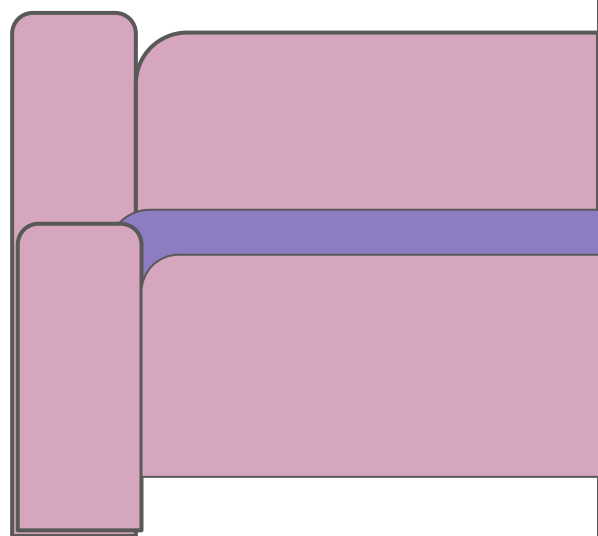

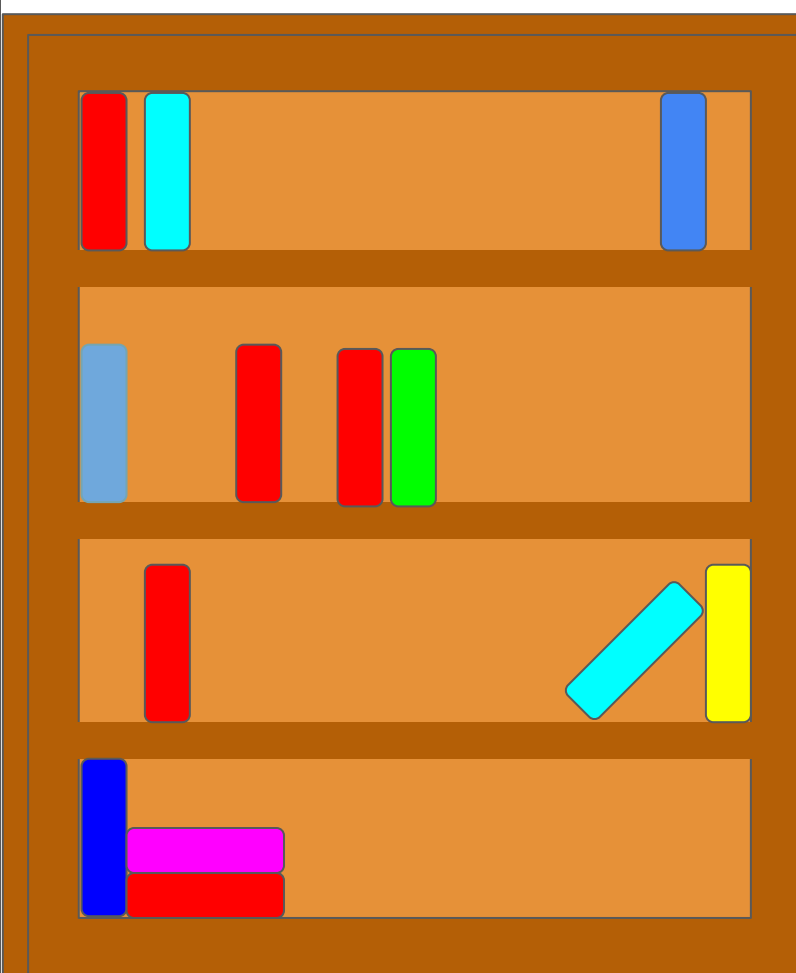

Today's Lesson

Popcorn Reading

I live in a small place in New York City with my parents.

I do not see mommy and daddy a lot, so I read books
at home with gam gam a lot.

I never had the biggest book selection but I read every book I had.

After some time I started to become the smartest kid in my class.

Star Reader!

Grade

Eventually when I went to high school they had a huge library of books to choose from.

After just two years I had already read every book
they had.

Next after I finished up reading all the books in the high school library I moved onto the public library.

Finally I started to work there so I could read all the books I wanted and help people find the books they liked.

Now I use my knowledge of books to help kids as a librarian.
